

What is Brand Identity & Design?

Join Brownstone Grey for a workshop to discuss brand identity and design. Learn how your company can create visible elements that identify and distinguish the brand in customers' minds. We will help you understand how to design a brand that communicates your company's values and impacts how customer's feel when they interact with you. During this workshop attendees will learn:

- What is brand identity?
- How to develop a strong brand.
- Tips to designing your brand identity.
- And much more!
